2015 Small Business of the Year Award Recipient- SEVRAR Wins Title

Mesa, AZ- The Mesa Chamber of Commerce held its annual Leadership Awards Dinner Friday, May 1, 2015 at the Hilton Phoenix/Mesa. Through an extensive application process the SouthEast Valley Regional Association of REALTORS'® (SEVRAR) received the title and prestigious honor of winning the Small Business of the Year Award.

The nomination criteria centered on various aspects of an organization's human resource program(s), community outreach effort and the overall impact with the Mesa community.

Janet Kane, CEO of SEVRAR emphasized that through strong advocacy efforts SEVRAR helps to preserve and protect the American dream. "There is a sense of pride and homeownership when REALTOR® members give their clients keys to their new homes". In addition, SEVRAR aims at providing quality education; leadership opportunities and creates worthwhile events and programs year round for REALTORS who're serious about their career.

Advocacy, community outreach, and serving as a resource are the important cornerstones of the organization. As a Not-for-Profit, supporting the American Dream of Home Ownership is why SEVRAR exists. Protecting the residence and business owners in the southeast valley, by encouraging good legislation and stopping poor legislation, SEVRAR will continue to be a valuable partner in the communities it serves.
