MESA, Ariz.–SEVRAR is proud to be a Patriot Sponsor of the 2016 East Valley Veterans Parade planned for Friday, Nov. 11, 2016 in Mesa. The East Valley Veterans Parade, now in its 11th year, is held in downtown Mesa to honor, thank and celebrate local veterans and active military. Last year, 50,000 spectators watched more than 2,000 parade participants from East Valley communities including Mesa, Chandler, Gilbert, Tempe, Scottsdale, Apache Junction and Queen Creek.

SEVRAR' S Community Outreach Committee, along with 30 volunteers constructed an American flag and military themed float for the parade. The event will begin at University Drive & Center Street with presentations at 10:30 a.m. and a fly-over and parade at 11 a.m. The East Valley Veterans Parade Association is an all-volunteer community event organization that relies on the generosity of local businesses, organizations and individuals to accomplish this collective patriotic tribute.

"We think it important to set aside a day to commemorate those that have served our country," said Keri Means, SEVRAR Board of Director President. "We are proud to support the East Valley Veterans Parade again this year."
